To continue with our annual Sewing Circle, we are planning an at home sewing day. Project: tactile mats for those suffering from dementia. Tactile mats are used to keep fidgeting fingers busy and to help with fine motor skills. Directions and sample mats can be found on our website. Be creative with your stash but be mindful of possible choking hazards.

At 10am, there will be a Zoom devotion and Beth Gebhart from Lutheran Social Ministries of NJ will speak about the purpose, need, and who will receive the mats.

Afterwards, you may either work on the mats then or another time. When done, they be collected at our Spring Rallies or pickup will be arrange. For more information call: Lesley Vergallito: 732-598-1847
